NEWS OF THE DAY.

A disturbance occurred in New Orleans, on the 28th inst. between some white and negro troops, and a squad of the negro troops fired into a crowd, wounding one man mortally. Great excitement prevailed for some time.

President Johnson, on Tuesday last, granted a full pardon and release to William Byrne, a well known Baltimorean, who went to Richmond in 1861, and remained there during the war.

Orders have been issued by the Government for the prosecution to completion, as rapidly as possible, of the work on Fort Wool, at the Rip Raps, Hampton Roads.

A magnificent sword, purchased at the cost of $750, by the negroes of Fortress Monroe and Norfolk, is now on its way to Lowell, Mass., to be presented to General Butler.

During the sitting of the American Medical Association at Boston, on Wednesday, Dr. C. C. Cox, of Maryland, offered a resolution expelling Dr. M. A. Pallen, a member of the association, on the charge of being implicated, by the evidence taken before the military commission at Washington, in an attempt to poison the water of the Croton reservoir at New York. After some discussion, the resolution was adopted almost unanimously.

The Grand Sire of the United States Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows has issued a circular reasserting the jurisdiction of that body over all the subordinate lodges of the Order in the lately insurrectionary States, and inviting them to send delegates to the Annual National Communication, to take place in Baltimore on the 18th of next September.

The National Democratic General Committee of King's County, N. Y., at a regular meeting held on Tuesday night, endorsed the policy of President Johnson as far as indicated in regard to the Southern States, and pledged him their earnest support in the restoration of peace and his Jacksonian democratic policy in the administration of the government.

Secretary McColloch, in order to meet all the demands upon the Treasury, has decided to pay fifty per ct. currency and fifty per ct. in certificates of indebtedness, on all claims over two thousand dollars, and all except those of the army.

Gen. Slocum gave a splendid entertainment to the officers of the Army of Georgia, at his headquarters, on Thursday night. The 14th and 20th corps were fully represented.

It is said that Louis Napoleon is more determined than ever to support Maximilian. Be it observed that we commence with "it is said."

The fortifications at Sabine Pass, in Texas, have surrendered to the U. S.

President Johnson's office is now in the President's House.

On Thursday last, six hundred and thirty converts to Mormonism landed at Castle Garden, New York, fresh from Europe. One half were females. Nearly every age was represented. Five hundred and fifty-eight Mormons from Hamburg, chiefly North Germans, are now on the way to New York. The World says the mass of these emigrants are profoundly ignorant.
